OAKLAND RACES POSTPONED.

Because of the death of ex-Secretary Milroy, of the California Jockey Club, there will be no racing at Oakland this afternoon. Mr. Milroy's death was caused by injuries received recently when alighting from a street car. He was one of President Thomas H. Williams' most valued assistants, and was one who had much to do with placing San Francisco racing on its present highly prosperous basis. He enjoyed the esteem of a wide range of friends and acquaintances, to whom his unexpected death will bring pain.

THE ELECTRIC BATTERY AGAIN.

CHARLESTON, S. C., February 19.—Jockey Kennedy, who rode Bad Penny in the opening event today, was ruled off the turf by the judges here for carrying an electric battery which aided the horse to win.

An investigation is being conducted by the judges to determine what share the owner of Bad Penny had in the electric battery affair.

George Yunc, who owns the horse, denies that he had any hand in the matter and knows nothing about the battery. He is substantiated by jockey Kennedy, who places all the blame upon himself, but it is expected that there will be some startling developments in the next twenty four hours.

J. R. Hand and W. F. Walter, who were warned away from the track when Wall & Co. had the management, at the earnest solicitation of President Wagener and the directors of the exposition company, were reinstated again to good favor today, but who had the authority to reinstate them without the full consent of the stewards who had warned them away is a mystery.

Jockey Powers, who rode Vince in the jumping event and which fell in negotiating the last obstacle, was declared by the physicians who examined the boy to be internally injured.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

As the Metropolitan Handicap is run early in the year, and as the older horses are not often ready, the makeup of the field for this event is almost always a puzzle until the horses are on their way to the post. Last year Clarence H. Mackay carried away the prize with Banastar, who was practically ignored by the public and was allowed to win with long odds about him. Banastar simply displayed his real form because he had been made fit earlier than the other horses of the aged division which he was asked to beat. It is a certainty, therefore, that if Banastar starts in this year's Metropolitan, he will not be overlooked, even though he was a cripple after the running of the Brooklyn, in which he was cut down. From indications all of the trainers will make an earlier start than usual this year, beginning at Bennings and proceeding to Aqueduct, where many of the most noted candidates for the Metropolitan are expected to make their preparations. This will serve to make the Aqueduct meeting of more than ordinary interest, though the program of events of the Queens County Jockey Club will be of marked attractiveness.

The Metropolitan will be the richest handicap of the big eastern events of this kind for the reason that the Westchester Racing Association has increased its value to a $7,500 added money race, a $1,500 advance over its worth a year ago. This is in line with Westchester's policy for the coming season, and it was evidently prompted by the great popularity of Morris Park last season, when larger crowds than ever before attended the spring and fall meetings. The Metropolitan with fifteen starters will net $8,750 to the winner. It is also cheaper for owners than the other events in that its nomination fee is $100 instead of $200 for both the Brooklyn and Suburban, while the forfeit is $50 instead of $100. After the announcement of the weights an owner who does not believe that his allotment is fair can withdraw his horse for the small sum of $10. The race, therefore, can be said to have been drawn on the most liberal lines and deserves the support of both horsemen and public. —New York Sun.

On his return to Cincinnati after the annual meeting of the Western Jockey Club at Chicago, Judge George G. Perkins said:

"It is the intention of the Latonia Jockey Club to make its spring meeting for 1902 such that it will stand second only to Washington Park in western turf history for the year. The club has been assured of substantial support by the best citizens of the community in its efforts to rejuvenate the sport, and Latonia will again be the Latonia of the days when the country's fairest daughters and sturdiest sons flocked to the Kentucky racing ground to taste the delights of battle done by equine monarchs.

"The passing of each winter day marks the shaping of a fulfilment of this prediction, or, if you please to so call it, promise. Primarily to the succor of the club, soiled by the hand of greed and stained by practices which the true sportsman scorns, came Mayor Fleischmann and the business men of Cincinnati, and assured by this evidence of substantial ability the foremost in the ranks of the thoroughbred owners and breeders in the southern and western country, re-enforced by some of the leading lights of the eastern turf, have given their aid and approval by entering their best and most promising racers for the prizes, which, when compared with the star attractions at Saratoga, Sheepshead Bay, Brighton Beach, Morris Park and Washington Park, seem modest, indeed. But from a sentimental view point—and there is a growing tendency to the sentimental in the sport—they stand for as much as events which figure ten times their value in dollars."

The statistics of the winter meeting of the Crescent City Jockey Club are beginning to assume huge proportions, both in the amount distributed and the sums earned by some of the stables. In all $161,985.50 has been won. This is divided among 190 owners, of whom 122 have received $250 or more. The following is a list of owners that have won $3,000, or more:

Owners.	Amount.
James Arthur & Co.	$7,235.00
A. Simons & Co.	5,987.00
Fizer & Co.	5,961.00
G. C. Bennett & Co.	5,492.00
Thomas Carey	4,595.00
R. E. Watkins & Co.	4,083.00
John Call & Co.	3,800.00
A. H. & D. H. Morris	3,181.50
M. Foster	3,115.00
E. Trotter & Co.	3,090.00

Among the jockeys, Coburn is still at the head, but as he has gone to Memphis and will not be seen in the saddle again until the Derby is run, his account is as good as closed. It is not likely that any of the other boys will equal his record. Lyne and T. Dean are tied for second place, the latter having made big gains during the week, while the former was neither very busy nor brilliant. Coburn has won fifty-two races, while Lyne and Dean have each won twenty-six. Bartley leads the steeplechase jockeys with five wins to his credit.

Gold Ornament, the winner of the New St. Charles Hotel Stakes at New Orleans, the first two-year-old stakes of the year at half a mile, is the first to face the flag of the get of the mighty Ornament, winner of the Latonia, Oakley and St. Louis Derbys and the Brooklyn Handicap. The filly not only won at sensationally long odds, but broke the track record for two-year-olds, her time being 48½ seconds. No two-year-old in America ever ran as fast for half a mile as early in the season as February.

Harry Beck, who beat McChesney as a two-year-old, has developed a ringbone, and will be thrown out of training. Harry Beck was a good winner last year and much was expected of him this season. He is owned by Circuit Clerk James C. Rogers of Lexington, Ky.

Winner—B. g. by Vassal—Idol. Went to post at 2:41. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Vassalo broke flatfooted, raced into the lead in the first quarter and appeared a certain winner thereafter and was easily best. Phil Archibald ran in the bad going, showed plenty of speed, finished strongly and was easily second best. Tufts did well and was evidently partial to the extra slow going. Baldo had no mishaps and tired in the stretch. Foul Play lasted for only a brief period today. Fridolin was anchored in the heavy going.

Overweights—Phil Archibald, 1 pound; Tufts, 3.

Winner—Br. f. by Brutus—Miwera. Went to post at 3:06. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Malaspina drew to the front in the stretch without any great effort and was much the best. Lass of Langden displayed her usual speed, but tired in the stretch run. Montana Peeress was anchored next to the rail and in deep going. Flattered showed moderate improvement. Jungfrau, off badly, quit after going three-eighths and is evidently in a bad way. Torila was lame before the race.

Malaspina, show, out. Lass of Langden, show, 2 to 5. Montana Peeress, show, 2 to 5.

30748 FOURTH RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 26, 51½, 1:19½.

Winner—B. g. by Guido—Exy-Tee. Went to post at 3:31. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Dr. Boyle broke flatfooted, but, under a pull, waited on Bard Burns to the stretch, where he drew to the front cantering and was much the best. Bard Burns got away slowly, but ran his usual good, consistent race and was inadequately handled. Maresa and Narra G. both went well throughout. John McGurk is a rater and was out of place. He wants a longer race to show well. Pompino ran a very bad race.

Overweights—Narra G., 1 pound.

Dr. Boyle, show, out. Bard Burns, show, out. Maresa, show, evens.

Time, 26½, 53½, 1:21½, 1:49½.

Winner—Ch. h. by Midlothian—Loleta. Went to post at 3:59. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won driving; second handily. Dunblane beat the gate and Bullman made the most of the advantage, but his mount was tiring fast at the end. Galanthus journeyed in the bad going for the first six furlongs and fell back at one stage, but came again fast and would have won in another stride. Formero, off badly, went very wide on the turns and sulked, but came again suddenly right at the end. Master Lee ran a remarkably good race and might have won with a competent rider. His improvement was probably due to the difficult track. Merops finished in the mud next to the rail and that anchored him. Sea Lion tired after going the first six furlongs.

Dunblane, show, out. Galanthus, show, 1 to 2. Formero, show, 6 to 5. Sea Lion, show, 1 to 2.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

C. A. Tilles, of Little Rock, speaks glowingly of the prospects for the annual spring meeting of the Arkansas Jockey Club at Little Rock. This meeting commences March 24, and horse owners are already flocking to the Clinton Park track. Barney Schreiber's big string of twenty-five head arrived there last week in charge of Dick Williams. The Schreiber horses are quartered in the big barn formerly occupied by George Bennett's horses. Paul J. Miles is another recent arrival at Little Rock. He brought a small but select string of runners from San Francisco. R. R. Rice has also arrived with Wax Taper, Miss Dora, Varner and other good ones.

Trainer James Rowe has ordered The Huguenot, winner of the Withers, the Brooklyn Derby and other great eastern events, shipped from Lexington, Ky., to his training grounds at Brookdale, N.

J., with the idea of training the horse for racing this season. The horse came to Lexington unsound, but has rounded to and it is believed he will stand training. He is a full brother to Henry of Navarre, by Knight of Ellerslie—Moss Rose, by The Ill Used.

Turney Bros., of Tillo and Dr. Catlett racing fame, are in receipt of a telegram from General W. H. Jackson, of Belle Meade Stud, Nashville, Tenn., that their noted Feronica, by Virginius, dam of Maude Gonne, winner of the Englewood Memorial and Tennessee Brewing Company's Stakes, has foaled a filly by The Commoner. The youngster is a sister to the flying Maud Gonne. The mare will be bred back to The Commoner.

L. Jackson, who rode Eonic to victory in the Burns Handicap, had this to say: "I had no idea I could win the race until I passed the half mile post on the backstretch. I was lucky to get through a small opening in the stretch, but I did not use my whip until the three-eighths post had been reached. Then Eonic responded in game fashion and came away easily."

Dr. Kehoe, the veterinarian, who has arrived at New Orleans from Memphis, states that neither Aladdin nor McChesney will be starters in the Derby. Hildreth had intended to send McChesney to Mobile and prepare him there, but the colt developed a cold, so that the plan was abandoned.

A number of horses arrived at Charleston, S. C., from New Orleans several days ago. Among them were Lexington Pirate and John Boone.

Winner—Ch. g. by Star Ruby—Tyranus.
Went to post at 4:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Tyranus ran a good race but was lucky and given a skilled ride. O'Connor reserved his speed for the stretch run and Tyranus made good gallantly. Phyllis injudiciously forced the pace in the worst going and Ranch floundered badly on the tiring filly at the end. Huachuca finished very fast after making up much ground and swerving all over the stretch. Legal Maxim displayed much speed and helped to tire out the pacemaker. Evander was prominent early but quit badly after going the first half. Commissioner Forster was hopelessly outrun and seemingly has lost his speed from his recent series of races in mud.

Overweights—Tyranus, 3 pounds.
Tyranus, show, 7 to 10. Phyllis, show, 3 to 5. Huachuca, show, 3 to 5. Evander, show, 3 to 5. Commissioner Forster, show, 2 to 5.

Went to post at 2:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Eugenia S. ran to her best form and finished stoutly, but it was a question of jockeyship at the finish and Lyne outrode Helgeson. Algie M. went around her field on the far turn and closed up strongly from there home. Fleetwing showed much improvement and stayed better than usual. Dramburg showed early speed but tired and does not like a soft track. Springer was pulled up on the far turn. Afra was thrown losing her rider.

Scratched—30705 Tragedy, 103; 30656 Radiant Heat, 100.
